CUSTODY MODIFICATION INSTRUCTION PACKET

Use the Custody Modification Packet ONLY when:

- □ There IS a Custody Order in place in Delaware. AND
- You want to change the terms of the current order; AND
- The child, a parent or a person acting as a parent continues to reside in Delaware. (There are exceptions to this requirement. If none of the above people live in Delaware, talk to an attorney to see if an exception applies to your situation).

--OR-

- There IS a Custody Order in place from a state other than Delaware.
 AND
- You want to change the terms of the current order; AND
- The child has been living in Delaware for AT LEAST 6 CONSECUTIVE MONTHS BEFORE filing the Motion and Affidavit to Modify Custody. (There are exceptions to this 6 month requirement. If the child has not lived in Delaware for at least 6 months talk to an attorney to see if an exception applies to your situation. If you are unable to retain an attorney, please refer to the Delaware Code, Title 13, Chapter 19); AND
- The Court that issued the Custody Order has given up jurisdiction (you need to contact that Court to find out how this is done).

Note: If a state agency has custody, you must file to rescind custody, not to modify custody.

If you and the Respondent already agree about how you want the custody arrangement to be modified, you may file a Consent Order. When you file a Consent Order, you and the Respondent write down how you want the custody arrangement to work and a Hearing Officer will sign your agreement and make it an order of the Court. To obtain a Consent Order, you must file all of the following forms: (Each form is described in detail on the page number listed in parenthesis after it.) You must file the Motion and Affidavit to Modify Custody (page 8), the Custody Separate Statement (page 11), the Information Sheet (page 11) and the Consent Order-Custody, Visitation (page 12).

To make this Instruction Packet easier to read, it will explain Custody Modification as if you wanted to file to modify custody of one child. If more than one child was included on the custody order, you may file to modify custody of all of the children on the same petition. Please note that if the children have different fathers or mothers, you must file to modify custody on separate petitions. For example, if two of the children have one father and one of the children has a different father, you would be required to file two petitions, one for each father.

HOW TO USE THE PACKET

This packet contains general information about the process of filing a Motion and Affidavit to Modify Custody, basic instructions on how to complete the Court forms you must file, and samples of the completed Court forms.

You should read the instructions and sample forms carefully before filling out any forms. All of the forms must be neatly filled out by hand or typed. COMPLETE AND FILE THE FORMS INCLUDED IN THE FORMS PACKET. The sample forms included in this Instruction Packet are simply to help you understand how to fill out the real forms in the Forms Packet.

YOU DO NOT HAVE TO COMPLETE ALL THE SECTIONS AT ONCE.

For example, you do not have to file the forms in Section 2 at the same time as the forms in Section 1. Read the information carefully to ensure that you know what you are supposed to do and when.

Please look for the shaded written instructions and the following symbols throughout the packet. They will help guide you.

READ THIS SECTION CAREFULLY

THIS DOCUMENT MUST BE FILED

FILL IN THE BLANKS OR WRITE INFORMATION HERE

YOU DO NOT HAVE TO TAKE THESE STEPS NOW.

- ✓ Make sure to read any Answers to Frequently Asked Questions on Custody. They will help you to better understand the Custody process.
- ✓ Remember who is the Movant and who is the Respondent.
 - The MOVANT is the person who filed the Motion and Affidavit to Modify Custody, in other words, you.
 - ➤ The RESPONDENT is the person replying (responding) to the Motion.
- ✓ Remember that just because you fill out the forms correctly does not necessarily mean that the Court will give you (grant) what you want. It is up to you at the court hearing to prove why the Court should give you what you want.
- ✓ Representing yourself may take a lot of time, may be difficult and may be confusing. The Court will expect you to follow the same rules that attorneys must follow. If at any point throughout the Court process you are not sure about representing yourself, you should talk to an attorney.
- ✓ Please remember that COURT STAFF CANNOT GIVE YOU LEGAL ADVICE. Should you have a question about what options you have or what you should do, you should talk to an attorney. Just because you talk to an attorney does not necessarily mean that you must hire that attorney to represent you. Ask the attorney if he/she is willing to meet with you and answer your questions without having to hire that attorney for full representation. Before you meet with the attorney, ask what fees may be involved for such limited services.

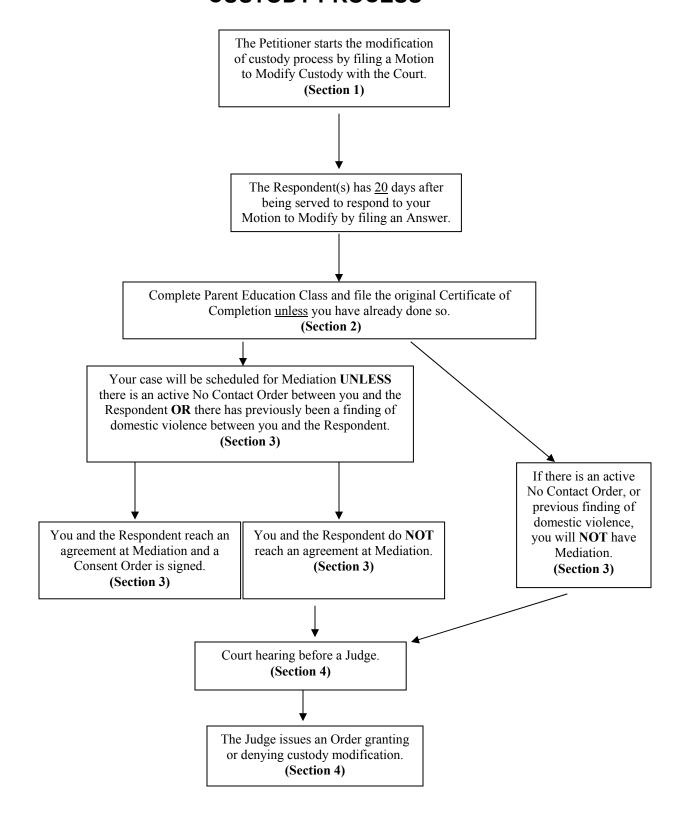

- ✓ If you would like assistance finding an attorney, you can call the Lawyer Referral Service in New Castle County, 302-478-8850, and in Kent and Sussex Counties, 1-800-773-0606. (You may call the same telephone numbers and ask for the Legal Help Link to find out if you qualify for free legal assistance.) You also can refer to the Attorney Roster that is located at the Family Court Resource Centers. The Attorney Roster is a listing of some of the attorneys who practice family law in Delaware and includes information about how to contact the attorneys and what fees the attorneys charge.
- ✓ Always bring your photo identification with you (such as your driver's license, or a state-issued photo identification card) whenever you get a Court form notarized.
- ✓ THERE IS A LOT OF PAPER IN A COURT CASE AND HAVING THE COURT MAKE YOU COPIES CAN BE VERY EXPENSIVE.

PLEASE READ AND REMEMBER THESE IMPORTANT TIPS

REMEMBER

- Keep a copy of every document and court paper.
- Keep all notes, documents and court papers together and organized in a folder with the most recent papers on top.
- Bring the folder with your papers with you every time you go to Court.
- When you file a document with the Court, bring the required number of copies of each paper and an extra copy for you to have "clocked-in." Keep the clocked-in copy in your folder so you have proof of the time and date you filed each document. You may make copies at the Resource and Self-Help Centers but there is a small fee.
- When you complete a document or form for filing with the Court, always include the full case name and file and petition numbers (if there are any).
- When you must mail something, we suggest that you use regular mail AND "certified mail, return receipt requested" so that you have proof that the other party received the envelope. If you cannot afford to pay for "certified mail" we suggest you get a "certificate of mailing" at the post office to prove that you mailed the envelope to the other party. You may purchase stamped envelopes at the Resource and Self-Help Centers and the Court will mail your Court papers for you by regular mail. You are responsible for certified mailing.

MODIFICATION OF CUSTODY PROCESS

SECTION 1

STARTING THE CUSTODY MODIFICATION PROCESS

- Make a copy of each completed form for your records.
- ➤ Have your set of copies "clocked-in" for your file. Having a paper "clocked-in" means that the Court will stamp on the copy the time and date you filed your papers. Your clocked-in copy will serve as proof of the time and date you filed the paper.

Motion and Affidavit to Modify Custody form. (file the original and one copy).

- You may only file to change custody if a custody order has already been issued by the Court. If you have not been to the Court before regarding custody, please see the Custody Instruction Packet.
- The U.S. and Delaware State Constitutions require that whenever a petition is filed with the Court, ALL of the people involved with the case must be notified. By naming a person as a Respondent, you are asking the Court to notify him/her of the petition. When filing a Motion and Affidavit to Modify Custody, you must include all of the other parties listed on the original Petition for Custody as Respondents. Always include the natural or adoptive parents of a child as Respondents. If you fail to notify any of the necessary parties, the motion may be deficient and you may have to start the process over, including paying another filing fee.
- A custody order can only be modified in certain situations.
 - If the original custody order that you want to change is a consent order (you and the Respondent(s) agreed to the - custody arrangement), then it can be modified anytime the Court finds that it is in the "best interest" of the child.

- If the original custody order was entered by the Court after a full hearing AND it has been less than two years since it was entered, the order can be changed only if the Court finds that continuing to enforce the order would endanger the child's physical health or significantly impair the child's emotional development.
- If the order was entered by the Court after a full hearing AND if has been more than two years since it was entered, the order can be changed only after the Court considers the following factors:
 - Whether any harm caused by changing the order is outweighed by the benefit of changing the order; AND
 - Each parent's compliance with the prior order; AND
 - The "best interest" of the child.
- When alleging facts in your Motion and Affidavit to Modify Custody, you want to tell the Court why the order can be modified (see above) and give the Court information so that it can decide why it is in the child's "best interest" to change the current custody arrangement. The child's "best interest" is the legal standard the Court must follow when deciding who should have custody of a child. (See Title 13 of the Delaware Code, section 722.) The Court will want to know about the following things when deciding what is in the child's "best interest." Explain to the Court how the following things apply to your situation.
 - 1. The wishes of the child's parents as to his/her Custody and living arrangements;
 - 2. The wishes of the child as to his/her Custody and living arrangements;

- The interaction of the child with his/her parents, brothers and sisters, grandparents and any people living in the child's home or affecting the child's best interest;
- 4. The child's adjustment to his/her home, school and community:
- 5. The mental and physical health of all individuals involved;
- 6. How well each parent has in the past and continues to satisfy their parental rights and responsibilities with respect to their children;
- 7. Evidence of domestic violence; and
- 8. The criminal history of any party or adult member of a household, including guilty pleas, pleas of no contest and criminal convictions.
- When writing down your allegations, you should list each point you want to make in its own numbered paragraph. This will make it easier for the Court and the Respondent(s) to understand why you think the custody order should be changed. An example of numbered paragraphs can be found on the Sample Motion and Affidavit to Modify Custody found at the end of this section (see page 18).
- ➤ If you need more space to write, you may attach additional pages to the Motion and Affidavit to Modify. Be sure to state on the Motion that you have attached more pages, so that the Court and the Respondent(s) will know to look for additional information.
- You must sign your Motion and Affidavit to Modify Custody in the presence of a notary public or authorized Court staff.

Custody Separate Statement form. (file the original and one copy).

➤ The Custody Separate Statement explains to the Court a child's past and present living arrangements, so that the Court can determine if it has authority to decide your Motion and Affidavit to Modify Custody. If all of the children have had the same living arrangements as one another for the past five years, then you may include all children on a single form. However, if the children have lived apart from each other sometime during the past five years, you must complete a separate form for each child. For example, if last year, one child resided with you and another child resided with the other parent, it would be necessary to file two Custody Separate Statements, explaining where each child lived.

Information Sheet form. (file the original and one copy).

➤ This form provides the Court with general information about the parties that allows the Court to adequately notify the parties about upcoming proceedings and to maintain up-to-date records.

BELOW ARE OPTIONAL FORMS

ONLY file the following forms if the situation applies to you.

If you do not know where a Respondent(s) lives, file:

Affidavit that a Party's Address is Unknown form. (file the original and one copy).

- ➤ You must provide the Court with each Respondent's current address. If you do not know where the Respondent(s) currently live, you must try to locate him or her. Ways to do this include talking to the Respondent's friends or relatives or checking the Internet. If after looking for the Respondent(s) you cannot find his/her current address, you must complete this form. Do not complete this form until you have made an effort to locate the Respondent(s).
- You must complete this form before you publish notice of the matter in the newspaper. Please see resource center staff for more information regarding Notice by Publication.

If you and the Respondent(s) have agreed on the custody modification, file:

Consent Order-Custody, Visitation (file one original).

- > On this form you will describe for the Court the following things:
 - Who will have custody of the child,
 - Whether the parent(s) will have Joint Custody or Sole Custody,

- Where the child will be living,
- Who will have visitation with the child, and
- What the visitation schedule will be.
- ➤ When describing the visitation schedule, be as specific as possible. Explain the places, dates and times that visitation will occur. Also, explain to the Court who will be responsible for driving the child to and from the visitations. For more information about visitation, please refer to the Visitation Overview and Instruction Packet.
- You and the Respondent(s) must both sign and have notarized the Consent Order.
- Once you have filed your agreement with the Court, it will be forwarded to a Hearing Officer who will review your agreement. If the Hearing Officer finds that the agreement is in the best interest of the child, then he/she will sign the agreement and it will become a court order, called a Consent Order.
- Once the Hearing Officer signs the Consent Order, the Court will mail a copy of the signed order to you and the Respondent(s).

If Respondent is in the military, file:

Waiver of Rights under the Servicemembers' Civil Relief Act (file the original and one copy).

➢ If the Respondent(s) is in the military, the Respondent(s) must file an Answer, an Affidavit of Appearance or YOU must have the Respondent(s) sign a Waiver of Rights under the Servicemembers' Civil Relief Act. If the Respondent(s) does not file one of these documents, you must file a Motion to Appoint an Attorney. You should start this process as soon as possible because it takes time.

- The Court will not schedule your custody hearing until you complete this process.
- ➤ If there are multiple Respondents who are in the Military you must file a separate form for each Respondent.

BE SPECIFIC WHEN COMPLETING THE FORMS and make sure that you address ALL of the areas explained on pages 9-10 in your petition. When you complete a form, write in blue or black ink AND write neatly.

File the forms at the Family Court in the County where the child currently resides. If the child currently lives in a different county, If the child does not currently live in Delaware, you should talk to an attorney before filing to make sure that the Delaware Family Court is the right Court to hear your case and to find out in which state and county you should file.

- In Kent and Sussex Counties you may file your papers at the Resource Centers on the first floor of the Family Court buildings.
- ➤ In New Castle County, you may file your papers at the Resource Center on the second floor of the New Castle County Courthouse or, IF, you have all of the forms completed, you do NOT have any questions, you have made the necessary copies and you do NOT need any papers notarized, you may file your papers at the Central Filing and Payment Center located on the first floor of the New Castle County Courthouse. There is no staff assistance at the Central Filing and Payment Center.
- ➢ If you file your papers by mail, the addresses for each courthouse are available on the Family Court website. The Court does NOT accept filings that are faxed or e-mailed.

A filing fee of $50 is charged to file this Motion. The filing fee can be paid in cash, by credit card, by debit card, by check or by money order made payable to "Family Court". If you are filing by mail, you may only pay by check or money order. FAMILY COURT WILL NOT ACCEPT YOUR PAPERS WITHOUT THE FILING FEE. There are additional costs if you must publish notice of this action.

ADDITIONAL INSTRUCTIONS FOR SECTION 1

SERVICE OF PROCESS

Each Respondent(s) must receive a copy of the Motion and Affidavit to Modify Custody. The delivery of the Motion and Affidavit to Modify Custody and any other forms you file is called Service of Process. The way that you accomplish Service of Process depends on how much information you can provide the Court about where the Respondent(s) lives. Determine from the following options how Service of Process should be accomplished in your case.

The Respondent(s) Lives in Delaware and You Know His/Her Address

If the Respondent(s) lives in Delaware AND you know his/her address, a Process Server (someone whose job involves delivering Court papers) will give a copy of your motion and other papers to the Respondent(s). This is called Personal Service. You do not need to fill out any additional paperwork.

□ The Respondent(s) Does Not Live in Delaware and You Know His/Her Address

If a Respondent does NOT live in Delaware AND you know the Respondent's address, the Court will mail your papers via certified mail, return receipt requested, to the Respondent(s). If delivery of the certified mail is unsuccessful, YOU must publish AT YOUR EXPENSE a legal notice of your motion in an approved newspaper in the county and state where the Respondent(s) lives. This is referred to as Service of Process by Mail and Publication. You must also complete an Affidavit that Address is Unknown form (see page 12).

You Do Not Know Where the Respondent(s) Lives or Works
If you do NOT know where a Respondent(s) lives or works so that the Process Server can deliver your petition to that Respondent(s), YOU must publish AT YOUR EXPENSE a legal notice of your motion in an approved newspaper in the county and state where the Respondent's last known address was located. You must also complete an Affidavit that Address is Unknown form (see page 12).

PUBLICATION

Instructions on how to publish notice of a court action are available in the Resource Centers. It is important to carefully follow the instructions for publication. If you do not properly publish notice, your Motion and Affidavit to Modify Custody could be dismissed.

THE ANSWER

- Once the Respondent(s) has been served with the Motion and Affidavit to Modify Custody, each Respondent has 20 days from the date of service (the date that the court papers are delivered to the Respondent(s)) to respond by filing an Answer to your Motion and Affidavit to Modify Custody. If there is more than one Respondent in your case, each Respondent must file his/her own separate Answer. You should receive a copy of the Respondent's Answer in the mail.
- On the Answer to your Motion and Affidavit to Modify Custody, the Respondent(s) must admit (agree with) or deny (disagree with) each of the statements you made in your motion. The Respondent(s) may explain why he/she disagrees with the statement.

AUTOMATIC COURT ORDER

- When you file a Motion and Affidavit to Modify Custody, Family Court immediately enters a Preliminary Injunction (an automatic Court Order) that applies to BOTH YOU AND THE RESPONDENT(S). It becomes effective UPON YOU as soon as you file the Motion and Affidavit to Modify Custody. You will receive a copy of the Preliminary Injunction when you file. The Preliminary Injunction becomes effective upon the Respondent(s) at the time that person is served with the motion.
- ➤ The Preliminary Injunction contains language that prohibits any party form removing a child from the jurisdiction of the Delaware Family Court without receiving permission from the other party or the Court.
- The purpose of the Preliminary Injunction is to prevent a person from permanently removing the child from Delaware, or from removing the child for a period of time that would interfere with the other person's right to spend time with the child and participate in the child's life. NEITHER YOU NOR THE RESPONDENT MAY RELOCATE (MOVE) THE CHILD TO ANOTHER STATE OR TAKE THE CHILD OUT OF DELAWARE FOR A PERIOD OF TIME THAT WOULD CAUSE FAMILY COURT TO LOSE LEGAL AUTHORITY (JURISDICTION) TO DETERMINE THE CUSTODY CASE. If you have questions regarding the relocation of a child, you should contact an attorney.

SECTION 2 BEGINS AFTER THE SAMPLE FORMS FOR SECTION 1.

YOU SHOULD BEGIN SECTION 2
ONCE YOU HAVE FILED THE FORMS

Visitation shall be as follows:

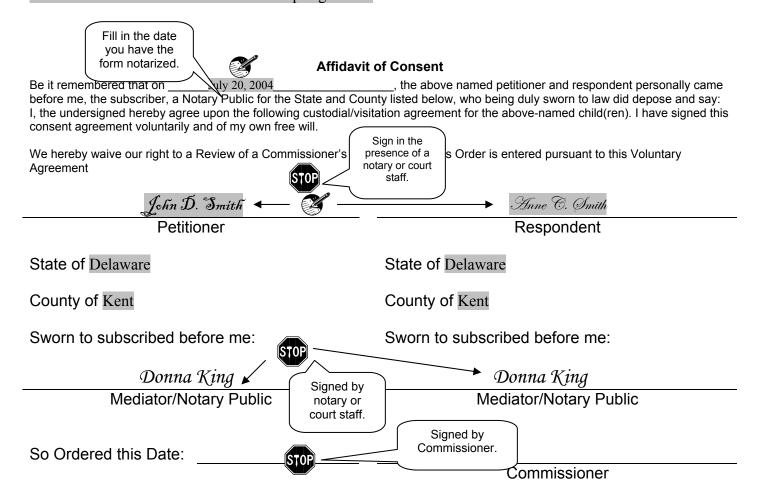

Describe the visitation schedule you have agreed on in detail.

Father shall have visitation with the children every other weekend beginning the first weekend in February. Father will pick the children up from school on Friday afternoon and will have them with him until 4 p.m. on Sunday afternoon. Mother and Father will meet at the McDonald's in Middletown to exchange the children at 4pm on Sunday afternoons. Both parties will try to be on time, but if one is running late, he/she will call the other's cell phone and let him/her know of the delay.

Father shall have visitation with the children every Wednesday evening from 6:30 to 8:30 p.m. Father will pick the children up at Mother's house and will drop them off at Mother's house. If there is a school activity on Wednesday evening so that the child(ren) cannot visit with Father, then Tuesday evening may be substituted.

Father and Mother will follow the visitation schedule set forth in the Standard Visitation Guidelines regarding holidays except for Christmas. Mother will have the holidays in Column 1 on odd years and the holidays in Column 2 on even years. Father will have the holidays in Column 1 on even years and the holidays in Column 2 on odd years. The children will spend all of Christmas Eve with Mother every year and all of Christmas Day with Father every year. Mother will drop the children off at Father's home at 9pm on Christmas Eve and Father will keep the children until 4pm the afternoon before school resumes after Winter Break. Father will drop the children off at Mother's house that afternoon.

Mother will have the children for all of Spring Break.

Section 2 PARENT EDUCATION CLASSES

IF YOU HAVE NOT ALREADY DONE SO, you MUST file the certificate below:

Certificate(s) of Completion of Parent Education Class (file original(s))

- Both parties to a custody modification proceeding must take a Parent Education Class. If your child is between the ages of 8 and 16, he or she must also attend the class. A listing of available classes is available at the Family Court Resource Centers. Once you and your child have completed the Parent Education Class, a Certificate(s) of Completion of Parent Education Class will be given to you.
- ➤ You must file the ORIGINAL signed Certificate of Completion of Parent Education Class with the Family Court. If you have already taken the Parent Education Class, an original copy(ies) of the Certificate of Completion should be in your file.
- Although the matter may be scheduled for Mediation, the Court will NOT schedule your Court Hearing before a Judge until you file the required Certificates of Completion.
- You should register for the Parent Education Classes AS SOON AS POSSIBLE because the classes tend to fill quickly and you may be placed on a waiting list.
- The parent with whom the child primarily lives is responsible for taking the child to the classes and filing the original Certificate of Completion. If your child lives with you and the other parent equally, then you, as the person who filed the Motion and Affidavit to Modify Custody, are responsible for taking the child to the classes and filing the original Certificate of Completion.

➢ If your child DOES have to attend the seminars, we suggest you take the children to a provider that offers both the parent seminars AND the children seminars to save yourself time and money.

Section 3 MEDIATION

After all of the Respondents have been served with the Motion and Affidavit to Modify Custody and each of the Respondents has had an opportunity to file an Answer, the Court normally will schedule your Custody Modification for Mediation. ALL PARTIES are required to attend.

- ➤ The Court will NOT schedule Mediation if there is an active No Contact Order involving you and the Respondent(s) or there has been a previous finding of domestic violence such as the following:
 - A Protection from Abuse Order, OR
 - An adjudication of criminal charges.
 - If there is an active No Contact Order involving you and the Respondent(s), you will NOT attend Mediation and the Court will schedule a Court Hearing before a Judge.
- Mediation is NOT a Court Hearing. At Mediation, a Mediator (a neutral third party) will try to help you and the Respondent(s) reach an agreement about custody. The Mediator will ask you and the other party to tell how you both think the matter should be resolved and will work with you to find a solution you both agree on. In other words, the Mediator is there to help you and the other party work together in deciding what arrangement is best for your child. Therefore, come with a "spirit of cooperation."

CONSENT ORDERS

- ➢ If, at the end of Mediation, you and the Respondent(s) reach an agreement, the Mediator will type your agreement into a document and you and the Respondent(s) will sign the agreement. The Mediator will also sign the agreement. Then, you will be allowed to leave and the Mediator will give your signed agreement to a Commissioner. The Commissioner will decide whether your agreement should become a court order, called a Consent Order.
- ➤ If the Commissioner decides your agreement should become a Consent Order, the Commissioner will sign the agreement and the Consent Order will be mailed to you and the Respondent(s). You will NOT have to go to a Hearing with a Judge. Most often, the Commissioner will sign a Consent Order proposed by a Mediator.
- Once a Consent Order is signed by a Commissioner, it is a Court Order and you and the Respondent(s) MUST follow the instructions in the order.
- ➤ Because the Consent Order is based on your agreement with the Respondent(s), you will lose your right to appeal the terms of your Consent Order before a Judge.
- ➤ If you DO NOT reach an agreement at mediation, the prior custody order will remain in effect until you have a hearing with a Judge.

Come to mediation prepared to discuss why the Custody Order should be changed. Keep the following information in mind as you prepare for mediation.

PARENTAL DUTY AND RESPONSIBILITY

➤ The Court generally orders Joint Custody, in which parents share the duties and responsibilities of raising the child. If you want to change the prior order so that you have Sole Custody, an arrangement where the other parent does not actively share in the duties and responsibilities of

- raising the child, you must demonstrate that such an arrangement is in the child's best interest. (For more information on the best interest of a child see pages 9-10)
- ➤ It is usually in the best interest of the child to have both parents active in his/her life. Regardless of who is awarded custody, generally each parent will have the right to request information concerning the child's progress in school, medical treatment, significant developments in the child's life, school activities and conferences, special religious events and other activities in which the parent may wish to participate. Also, each parent will have the right to reasonable access to the child by telephone or mail.

PLACEMENT

Often parties do not want to change the type of custody (joint or sole) that they have. Instead, the parties want the Court to change the placement of the child, in other words, change where the child will live most of the time. Placement is determined according to what is in the CHILD'S best interest, not the parent's or the custodian's best interest.

VISITATION

- ➤ Generally, when the Court addresses Custody, it will also address Visitation to enable the party not given primary placement to spend time with the child. Visitation establishes a schedule of contact with the child.
- You should review the Family Court's Standard Visitation Guidelines to get a general idea about visitation arrangements. The Standard Visitation Guidelines are on the Family Court website (http://courts.state.de.us/family). Consider whether the Standard Visitation Guidelines accommodate you and the Respondent's schedule as well as the schedule of the child. You are not required to follow the Standard Visitation Guidelines. At Mediation, you and the Respondent can work together to establish a visitation schedule that works best for you, Respondent(s), and most importantly your child.

Be realistic when asking for the terms of a custody order. The law says that it is better for a child to have at least some contact with both parents unless that contact would endanger the child's physical health or significantly impair his or her emotional development. The focus is on what is in the CHILD'S best interests. Just because YOU do not want the parent to be involved in the child's life may not mean that that is in your CHILD'S best interests. Therefore, at Mediation, be prepared and try to work with the Respondent(s) to accommodate the parent's right to a continuing relationship with the child.

IF YOU REACHED AN AGREEMENT AT MEDIATION, THIS IS THE END OF THE PACKET.
OTHERWISE, GO TO SECTION 4.

Section 4 HEARING WITH A JUDGE

SCHEDULING THE HEARING

A Court Hearing will be scheduled by the Court ONLY if:

- The Mediation was unsuccessful (no agreement or a temporary agreement was reached) OR Mediation was not required; AND
- ➤ The original Certificates of Completion for the Parent Education Class have been filed. THE COURT WILL NOT SCHEDULE A HEARING UNTIL THE CERTIFICATES OF COMPLETION HAVE BEEN FILED WITH THE COURT.

You do not need to file any additional paperwork to have your hearing scheduled. The Court will notify you when your hearing is scheduled, by mailing you a Notice to inform you of the time and date of the Court Hearing.

Some judges may schedule a pre-trial hearing. The purpose of this hearing is to discuss the status of your case prior to scheduling a full evidentiary hearing where you will present evidence and call witnesses.

(a) If you cannot attend the scheduled hearing you must file the following form:

Motion for Continuance (file one original and mail one copy to the Respondent).

If, once you receive your Notice, you cannot attend the scheduled hearing, you must contact the Court IMMEDIATELY by filing a Motion for Continuance. DO NOT call the Court. On this Motion, you must state very specific reasons why you cannot attend the hearing. You must have a legal and unavoidable reason for needing to reschedule the hearing. You cannot request a continuance simply because it is not convenient for you to attend the hearing on the scheduled day. Before you file Motion for Continuance, you must contact the Respondent(s) regarding the continuance and then tell the Court in your motion how the Respondent(s) feels about the continuance. Because the law is very strict when it comes to rescheduling, these Motions are not always granted. Please review Family Court Rule of Civil Procedure 40 for more information.

You will be notified by the Court if your Motion for Continuance has been granted. UNLESS THE COURT GRANTS YOU A CONTINUANCE, YOU MUST APPEAR AT COURT THE DAY OF YOUR SCHEDULED HEARING. If you fail to appear at your hearing, the Court can enter an order granting the Respondent everything that he/she wants. You would not be given any say in how the custody arrangement would work.

THE DAY OF THE HEARING

If the Respondent(s) has not filed an answer or otherwise appeared in the custody modification matter, complete the following form and bring it to Court with you on the day of your hearing.

Affidavit of Non-Military Service form.

ONLY complete this form if the Respondent(s) is NOT in the military and has not filed an answer or otherwise appeared in this custody modification matter.

If there is more than one Respondent, you must complete a separate form for each person.

The Court Hearing is a Trial in front of a Judge. At the Court Hearing, you and the Respondent(s) will each be given an opportunity to tell your sides of the case and ask witnesses questions. During the Court Hearing, the Judge expects you to follow a certain procedure. It is important that you are familiar with this procedure so that you know what you are allowed to do, when you are allowed to talk, and how to tell your side of the story.

Family Court has developed a Court Hearing Procedure Overview that explains generally what the Court Hearing procedure is and should answer many of the questions you have about the procedure. Family Court also has developed a series of Answers to Frequently Asked Questions on Your Court Hearing to help you prepare and organize for your Court Hearing. It will be helpful to read this information before your scheduled hearing.

At the hearing, it is up to YOU to prove to the Judge WHY it is in the child's best interest for the Court to change the prior Custody Order. The best interest standard is explained on pages 9-10 of this Instruction Packet. Review that information before the hearing, so that you are prepared to present your case to the Court.

Once both sides have presented all of their evidence, one of two things can happen. The Judge can announce his/her decision at the end of the hearing, in which case you will leave the Courthouse knowing what the custody arrangement is. OR, the Judge can reserve decision. When the Judge reserves decision, he/she considers all of the information presented during the hearing and issues a written order explaining the new custody arrangement sometime after the hearing. Regardless of how the Judge issues the order, you should receive a copy of the Judge's decision, or Court Order, in the mail.

Once the Court has entered a Custody Order, you and the Respondent(s) should follow the instructions in the Order. In other words you should do what the Order tells you to do. The Court will not enforce any agreements made by the parties that are not in a Court Order. If circumstances change, you and the Respondent(s) can change the Order by filing the proper petition.
